XanthoMax

The name is XanthoMax, an encapsulated dietary supplement designed to deliver Xanthohumol, a powerful antioxidant. XanthoMax is a Xanthohumol based nutraceutical that is derived from Hops flowers — most likely the same plant used to flavor your favorite beer! You would have to drink a lot of beer, approximately 2,000 liters, to get the same equivalency. Like many dietary antioxidants, Xanthohumol is a flavonoid. XanthoMax uses liposomal technology which helps to protect the nutrients from being destroyed in your stomach and delivers our proprietary blend directly to your cells. XanthoMax supports your well-being!
