Pure

Stay healthy! Many people unknowingly have an excessive amount of heavy metals stored in their body, contributing to health challenges. It's not hard to have heavy metal toxicity—just think about what we're exposed to in our air, water and food. Pure is a unique patent pending dietary supplement designed to assist in the removal of toxins and heavy metals from the body. The Pure product is made from "mica" extract, part of the zeolite family. Pure supports the systemic detoxification of heavy metals and environmental toxins!
