Our unique and proprietary products bundled together (Elevate coffee and XanthoMax) naturally promote your body's own happiness hormones, Dopamine, Oxytocin, Serotonin and Endorphins. Elevate Coffee is not just a coffee. It is a functional beverage, with a proprietary blend of natural and botanical NOOTROPICS.

XanthoMax is a bio-available xanthohumol with the ability to support your body's ability to produce its own oxytocin, naturally. Oxytocin is often called the hormone of happiness. Xanthohumol is a molecule found in the hops plant.
